HFB Financial Planning Advice Fees and Charges

Chris Jones will be paid by financial planning advice fees as described in the Financial Services Guide. The amount of the benefit and how it is calculated will be advised during your initial meeting. For your initial meeting with Chris this will be complimentary and no fee will be incurred.

If you decide to engage Chris to prepare a financial plan (“Statement of Advice”) you will be charged a one-off fee. This fee will depend on the complexity and hours taken to prepare the advice. You will be notified of the cost involved prior to the commencement of any work. In general, the fee to prepare this Statement of Advice will be a minimum of $2,700 (incl GST).

All clients are then engaged in a review programme where you will have access to Chris and his supporting staff at all times. This will include regular review meetings discussing your strategies and investments, ongoing reporting and advisory services.

The cost for this ongoing service will be a fixed fee and is determined by the amount of work involved to manage your financial strategies and investments. This ongoing fee will be agreed with you in advance and will be reviewed annually.

For a detailed list of the ongoing services provided and your ongoing fee please refer to your “Service Agreement”.

HFB Financial Planning Pty Ltd pays a fixed licensing fee to Capstone Financial Planning Pty Ltd and will receive all revenue earned from the financial services provided to you. Chris is a Director of HFB Financial Planning Pty Ltd and will receive a salary/benefit from this company.

Other Benefits Chris May Receive

From time to time Chris may be invited to social or sporting events and receive the occasional gift such as a bottle of wine or hamper on special occasions. These non-cash benefits will have a value of less than $300. A register listing the details of any non-cash benefits between $100 and $300 is maintained. These invitations and gifts do not influence the advice provided to you. If you would like more information you can request a copy of the register.
